A Taste of Fame

Abstract

A modern story about a boy, Rando, who adores a music star, Dee Zasta, so much that he wishes to be like him. Rando begins behaving like Dee and even starts imitating the star’s singing style. One day during a concert for upcoming musicians, Rando performs exactly like the star. Dee, who is present in the concert, is so impressed that he invites Rando for a collabo during a forthcoming concert for established musicians. One week of close contact with the music star opens Rando’s eyes to the truth about the real life of a celeb.
